

Registered Veterinary Technician

Are you an experienced Veterinary Technician in search of a position in a highly supportive environment with a positive culture? Would you love to be part of an organization that provides guidance, mentorship, and accountability at every level? If you answered 'yes' to both of those questions, we want you to apply for this opening!

A busy and successful veterinary practice in Lake Echo has an opening for an experienced, enthusiastic Veterinary Technician to join our growing team! If you have the below qualifications, apply today!

Qualifications

- At least 1-year of hands-on experience previously working as a Veterinary Technician
- The desire to perform a multitude of veterinary technician tasks including blood draws, catheter placement, obtaining urine/stool samples, surgical preparation, and assistance, and MORE!
- A learning mindset as it is never too late to learn new skills or to improve the ones you already have
- Attention to detail and a high degree of organization
- A positive, friendly demeanor is a MUST!

Hours & Availability

The Complete Care Hospital for Pets team provides excellent care for pets - and their humans - from 8:30 am to 5:00 pm Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday of each week, and from 8:30am to 7:00 pm on Thursdays. With some staff having the ability to work four-day work weeks!

Candidates who are motivated by a work-life balance are encouraged to apply as we pride ourselves in ensuring you have time to enjoy what you love outside of work!

Pay & Benefits

Your superior technical skills and professionalism will be rewarded with a competitive pay range of $18 - $24.00 per hour, depending upon experience. In addition to competitive pay, we offer weekly and monthly bonuses for meeting goals.

Other benefits include NSVMA and EVTA dues, medical/dental coverage, long term disability insurance, group RRSP with employer contribution, paid CE days and allowance, paid vacation, sick days, uniforms, and discounted pet care

About Us

We are proud to be an independently owned two doctor mixed animal practice, predominantly consisting of a small animal clientele with some hobby farms and companion large animals. We have many of the amenities that larger facilities have, are fully computerized in every exam room and are mostly paperless using Avimark. We are also excited about our newly renovated facility offering four exam rooms!

We offer a small hometown feel with an exceptional team that will go the extra mile for the doctors, our patients, and the clients. They are truly passionate about their role. We love building relationships with our clients, and it makes us proud to hear them rave about how well we take care of them!

How to Apply

Opportunities to join this great team do not open often. Don't miss your chance to work in a place that truly values and recognizes your contributions. Apply by submitting a copy of your resume through this ad today!
